

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

SUNDAY REST—A picturesque sight at Volendam, Holland: Fishing boats, with sails furled, at rest over Sunday.

CRUISERS JUNKED—Two cruisers of a generation ago, the U. S. S. Huron and the U. S. S. Charleston, are wrecked at Seattle, Wash., by a commercial junk concern, which purchased them at auction for the materials in them.

RICHEST HEIRESS—Miss Doris Duke, said to be America's richest heiress, is snapped at Newport, R. I.

AUTOGYRO PLANE AT RACES—A scene at Chicago's National Air Races: The Pittsmeier-Cierra autogyro plane makes an exhibition flight.

REMARKABLE RESEMBLANCE—Samuel B. Hanson, Philadelphia veteran, is seen meeting General Bull, who resembles Abraham Lincoln, at Grand Army of the Republic reunion in Cincinnati.

LUNCHEON FOR DISTINGUISHED CUBAN CARICATURIST—Conrado Massaguer, distinguished Cuban caricaturist, is guest of honor at luncheon given by artists and writers at the Hotel Lexington, New York. Seated, left to right: Jack Lait, novelist; "Bugs" Baer, humorist; Brigadier General J. Leslie Kincaid, executive director of the Hotel Lexington; Massaguer; Billy DeBock, creator of Barney Google and Spack Plug; and Walter Howey, editor.

AN EXPEDITION THAT SOUGHT TRACES OF ANDREE—Finding of the frozen bodies in the far north of Salomon Auguste Andree, Swedish explorer, and two companions, who set out in a balloon 33 years ago, recalls the expedition which Anthony Fiala led into Arctic regions 26 years ago to find traces of the balloonists. This expedition is pictured above.

LITTLE VAMP—Fortune smiles on Shirley Jean Rickert, 4, for Superior Judge Marshall F. McComb of Los Angeles has approved a contract for her by which she becomes official "vamp" in Our Gang comedies. Mary Pickford is seen offering confidence to the new star.

CHAMPION—Mrs. George T. Peter of Phoenix, Ariz., is winner of the Women's Grand American Handicap shoot at Dayton, O., with a score of 191 out of 200.

FOR "EXCLUSIVE" DOGS—A cemetery catering exclusively to dogs and providing for their perpetual care after they are laid to rest, is operated at Florissant, Mo., near St. Louis, in connection with a dog show. This shows a visiting admirer to one of the graves bearing an expensive monument.

SHORT CUT FROM NEW ENGLAND—Opening up a new short route from New England to the west, the Mid-Hudson bridge, connecting Poughkeepsie and Highland, N. Y., is opened to traffic.

SING HYMNS TO AIMEE—A group of Aimee Semple McPherson's admirers and church workers motor from Angelus Temple, Los Angeles, to the evangelist's Malibu Beach house, where Aimee has been resting after a nervous breakdown, to sing hymns under her window.
